Assessing the impacts of financial reporting decisions

Introduction to behavioural research • Behavioural research in accounting examines how individuals react to various accounting disclosures • Grounded in behavioural decision theory Goal is to: - describe actual decision behaviour

The role of behavioural research in accounting

Applicability of the Lens Model • Structure of the Lens Model can be applied to almost any decision-making scheme

Input level-use of cues How and whether particular cues are used in decision making is particularly relevant to the accounting profession

Research evidence—the use of information items . In making predictions of financial returns, analysts are found to acquire earnings and sales information more often than other types (Pankoff \u0026amp; Virgil 1970: Mear \u0026amp; Firth 1987)

Research evidence—the presentation of information

Knowledge of heuristics in research

Decision output-decision accuracy • When looking at the actual output of the decision-making process (the decision or judgment), some research has considered how accurate the predictions are relative to the actual environmental outcomes - for example, Libby 1975, investigated the accuracy with which loan officers predict business failure. Research has

Limitations of behavioural research • Research examining similar issues has generated conflicting results
